Elite Football Network

The Elite Football Network Scouting Report is an NCAA approved scouting service that assists college football coaches and programs at the Division I, II, III and NAIA levels with identifying and recruiting potential high school and junior college prospects. Since 2002, we have also managed regional football combines and exposure camps in Detroit, Indianapolis, Knoxville, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Minnesota and Philadelphia. Our national camps help provide valuable data and information from prospects all across the country.
